Building a Safe Place for Children

Think about the protective factors that you learned about in this lesson. In the space below, describe what you think a family child care program looks like that promotes these factors. You may use words, drawings, photographs, or other means to represent your ideas. If you need additional space, you can use your own materials.