Building a Safe Place for School-Age Children & Youth

Think about the protective factors that you learned about in this lesson. In the space below, describe what you think a school-age program looks like that promotes these factors. You may use words, drawings, photographs, or other means to represent your ideas. If you need additional space, you may use materials available at your program.