Resources for Your Program

1. Children’s Books to Support Anti-bias Education
   This site provides a list of children’s books selected by the co-author of Anti-bias Education for Young Children and Ourselves. It offers suggestions for Culture and Language, Racial Identity, Gender Roles, Economic Class, Abilities and Disabilities, Family Structure, Holidays, Activism, and Infant/Toddler Books. http://www.childpeacebooks.org/cpb/Protect/antiBias.php

2. Children’s Books that Represent the Diversity of our World
   This website, created by The Respect Diversity Foundation, a nonprofit organization, highlights books for children and youth that promote acceptance and tolerance across differences. http://respectdiversity.org/books-for-children-youth/

3. Cooperative Children’s Book Center (CCBC) Publications
   This website, created by the Cooperative Children’s Book Center at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, offers ideas and booklists for enriching your classroom library. https://ccbc.education.wisc.edu/books/bibBio.asp?publications=true

4. Language Castle
   This website, blog, and book (Many Languages, One Classroom: Teaching Dual and English Language Learners) offer suggestions for supporting children who are learning English. www.languagecastle.com

5. National Head Start Office Early Childhood Learning and Knowledge Center (ECLKC): Cultural and Linguistic Responsiveness
   This website has a variety of tools. This includes a downloadable Program Preparedness Checklist: Serving Dual Language Learners and their Families. It also offers information on appropriate assessment, planning, and teaching children who are learning English. http://eclkc.ohs.acf.hhs.gov/hslc/tta-system/cultural-linguistic

6. Colorin Colorado: Helping Children Read…and Succeed!
   This website is a bilingual site for families and educators of English language learners. It offers book lists for a variety of topics. These include holidays (Day of the Dead, Ramadan, Thanksgiving, Chinese New Year), family structures (Grandma’s/Grandpa’s Stories, Reading with Dad), and experiences (beach stories, immigrant stories, snow). http://www.colorincolorado.org/index.php?langswitch=en