

Welcoming Families to Your Classroom and Program

There are so many ways families can participate in your classroom and program. Fill in some of the ways in the right column.

Encouraging Family Participation	Possibilities
What activities are families invited to attend? Examples include assemblies, family breakfasts, field trips, etc.	<input type="checkbox"/> Assemblies <input type="checkbox"/> Concerts <input type="checkbox"/> Plays <input type="checkbox"/> Field Trips <input type="checkbox"/> Family nights <input type="checkbox"/> Family breakfasts <input type="checkbox"/> Special events <input type="checkbox"/> Other:
How do you make families feel like a part of your classroom?	<input type="checkbox"/> Posting family photographs in the classroom <input type="checkbox"/> Including children's books about families <input type="checkbox"/> Calling family members by name <input type="checkbox"/> Asking them to volunteer in classroom activities <input type="checkbox"/> Other:
How do you get families involved in your classroom?	Art: Music: Cooking:

	Outdoors:
	Other:
What additional opportunities do families in your classroom have to participate in other program activities? Examples include family councils, parent meetings, etc.
What parent education programs does your program offer?
What family resources does your program offer?	