Practice Guide Responses

Think about the ways you connect with families in your program regarding child guidance strategies. Take time to review your program policies and read over the Practice Guide attachment from the American Academy of Pediatrics. What are some thoughts or ideas you have to improve some of your existing practices? Record your reflections below and share and discuss with a colleague, trainer, coach or supervisor.