

Reflection: Interactions between children, adults and families

In the table below reflect on how interactions between children, adults and families occur in your program. Write down your initial thoughts and ways to improve upon interactions.

	What are your current program practices?	How could these practices be improved?
Interactions between children
Interactions between adults
Interactions between children and adults
Interactions between staff and families
Individualized Behavior Support Planning Process		