Professionalism and Ethics Resources

There are many resources to help you understand the importance of professionalism and ethics in your work as a school-age staff member. Take some time to explore the resources below.

www.naeyc.org/ethics
This website provides information on books, position statements, videos, and other resources concerning ethical conduct in early-childhood education from the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC).

http://naaweb.org/resources/articles
This link takes you to the National After School Association (NAA) website, where you will find articles, webinars, and other resources to enhance your school-age program.

http://www.earlychildhoodnews.com/page2.aspx
This website is a resource for early-childhood professionals that includes articles, hot topics, and classroom ideas to enhance your sense of professionalism.

https://www.cec.sped.org/Standards/Ethical-Principles-and-Practice-Standards
This link takes you to the Council for Exceptional Children website. Listed here are the Special Education Professional Ethical Principles.

http://www.dec-sped.org/papers
This link takes you to the Division of Early Childhood’s website. Listed here are position statements and papers.

This link takes you to the American Academy of Pediatrics website. This website shares early-childhood and child-care related policy.

http://www.childcarelounge.com/articles/articles.php
This site provides general articles for early-childhood professionals as well as articles for directors, parents, students, and family child-care providers. Online courses, activity ideas, printable activities, and networking opportunities are also provided.

http://www.southernearlychildhood.org/
This link takes you to the Southern Early Childhood Association website where you will find position statements, articles, and additional resources.