Taking Charge of Your Own Professional Development

Staying current in your work as a school-age staff member requires ongoing effort and perseverance. Take some time to check out the resources available in the Apply section of Lesson 3 within the School-age track Program Management course. Then reflect on your roles and responsibilities as a school-age staff member, how you can stay motivated in your practice, and how to stay current in your field.