Supporting Children’s Social-Emotional Development

Use the resources below to learn more about supporting children’s social-emotional growth

Resource: Center for Social Emotional Foundations in Early Learning
Description: Practical strategies for teaching problem solving; materials for making visual and “solution kits.”
Website: http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/resources/strategies.html#teachingskills

Resource: Center for Social Emotional Foundations in Early Learning
Description: Helping young children control anger and handle disappointment
Website: http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/resources/training_preschool.html#mod2

Resource: Center for Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation
Description: Teaching tools for young children with challenging behaviors
Website: http://www.ecmhc.org/TTYC/index.html

Resource: Technical Assistance Center for Social Emotional Interventions
Description: Creating teaching tools for young children with challenging behavior
Website: http://www.challengingbehavior.org/do/resources/teaching_tools/ttc.htm

Resource: Head Start Center for Inclusion
Description: Tools for preschool teachers for promoting inclusion
Website: http://depts.washington.edu/hsscenter/teachers